PUBLIC NOTICE
This public notice is been published to clear confusion arisen out of the advertisement published in The Assam Tribune dated 14/01/2020 on our behalf. To clarify this confusion we would like to state that "SWACHH JAL MISSION" is the sole initiative undertaken by our NGO namely "Rural Organisation for Development", a SRA registered society. It has nothing to do with any government agencies or organisation of similar nature. It has also been observed that some misleading statements are going viral in different social media and digital platforms through some unauthorised individuals or units. We would like to clarify that we have not authorised any such person or units in this regard. All such activities which are going viral on social media and digital platforms are completely illegal and can be dealt with by strict legal procedure. For more information and details about the said project and recruitment process, log on to our website : www.sjmp.co.in.
